“I need a reliable employment support expert to help find qualified applicants quickly and cost-effectively.”

Employment Connection complements and extends the reach of your human resources team by assisting you with recruiting, screening, training, and referring only qualified applicants.

While saving you time and money, we can show you the benefits from hiring workers with disabilities. There are many programs and incentives available to support employers who hire people with disabilities. We specialize in working with people of diverse backgrounds, many of whom are in career transition, have a disability or medical condition, or receive public assistance.

“I want my new hires productive ASAP.”

After placement, we provide continued support free of charge. Our employment support specialists help new employees adapt to their environment more quickly and more smoothly than they would alone. After discussing job standards and requirements, an employment consultant will implement a plan that works best for employer and employee.

- Ensure new hires fully understand your company's policies and procedures
- Provide counseling to an employee who may need extra support
- Provide employee job training assistance
- Recommend reasonable work-site modifications
- Strengthen employee skills and abilities to meet specific goals
- Share new tax incentives, programs and EEOC regulations
