GET OFF YOUR KNEES
 THE JOHN ROBINSON STORY
 on Dialogue
 PART OF WXXI'S Disability

Get off Your Knees

He was born a congenital amputee. No hands. His arms stop at his elbow. No knees. His lower legs are attached to his hips. What should have been a life in the shadows became the life of a man who cast a giant shadow despite his 3'9" height. As part of its annual Dialogue on Disability: The Herman & Margaret Schwartz Community Series, WXXI and Al Sigl Community of Agencies are pleased to present Get off Your Knees: The John Robinson Story, a documentary profiling the remarkable life of John Robinson.

Dialogue on Disability: The Herman & Margaret Schwartz Community Series* is a week-long outreach initiative designed to stimulate community dialogue about the perspectives and abilities of people with disabilities. It runs January 18-24, and is made possible thanks to support from the Fred L. Emerson Foundation. To learn more visit WXXI.org/dod.

Get off Your Knees: The John Robinson Story airs Wednesday, January 20 at 9 p.m. on WXXI-TV
